

Isaiah 50:4-8 For Further study

MIXER: Can you remember what it was like looking forward to the birth of a child? What was it like? What did you feel? What did you do? Can you imagine knowing who would freely come to faith and Him deciding to die for their fellowship from 'before the foundations of the world'?

1. What images/ thoughts come to mind when you read these phrases?
 - KJV Isaiah 50:5 "The Lord hath opened mine ear..."
 - Vs 6 CEV "I let them"
 - Vs 6 CEV "I didn't turn aside when they insulted me and spit in my face"
 - "I refuse to give up"
2. Are we in any way guilty of beating Jesus or spitting in His face?
3. Can you accept personally that YOU are the meaning of the word JOY in Hebrews 12:2?
4. Romans 8:30. What does the word 'glorified' mean to you?
5. Pray that more and more people will know how much Jesus loves them and those who struggle to accept this truth will get revelations of it this week.
