BEING IN THE WAY THE LORD LED ME! - Genesis 24:27

Today I will share with you four stories from our recent travels around Australia to four cities. They are an illustration of how God meets us in the midst of our daily events and somehow weaves his kingdom pathway amidst our feeble choices. I am constantly amazed at this mixture of the ordinary and the extraordinary, the human and the divine, and the planned and the unplanned. Somehow we need to discern the Lord's "ways" amidst the messy practicalities of life. Even my plans turn to nothing at times and then God steps in with something even better. My awkward and even graceless ways of living are sunk and His ways and purposes are established even without me doing anything! How is this possible? It's the awareness of being "in the way of God" in our lives that marks us as disciples of Jesus. It makes even the ordinary plod of life something exceptional and remarkable. I hope today's message will encourage you to look for the "ways" of God in your life.
