Micah 6:8 -The Gospel according to Micah - Heseed Love

It's very hard for us to comprehend what an Old Testament gospel might look like on this side of Calvary. What we have in Jesus is God the Father's final message for the World and there is nothing more to be said nor added! But when people of faith journeyed in the years before Christ there was only law and prophets to guide them. The law showed them how far they were from God and the prophets tended to reprimand those shortcomings. However, every now and then we get a glimpse of the gospel in the Old Testament especially through the writings of Isaiah – messages of hope and future for God's people once they come out of a period of discipline and captivity. Micah 6:8 is such a verse in which this minor prophet reminds people what God requires of them, and what he says is arresting and astounding. God doesn't require burnt offerings for sin anymore but doing right, exercising mercy, and walking humbly!!!! Oh my goodness, does that mean we have been backing the wrong horse all these years? Right from the beginning God has required sacrifice for the forgiveness of sin. Now here is a new gospel which later Jesus would fully demonstrate by living out kingdom truth and 'heseed love'.

Micah would certainly have some affinity to the book of James in the New Testament – maybe they are somehow linked for their message is the same. Live it out with integrity and a new kingdom way of forgiving and loving.
