Richard Brunton

➔ Missions Month 2022 Ranui Baptist Church Where people matter

Richard Brunton was a pioneer of the market research industry in New Zealand. He co-founded Colmar Brunton in 1981 and built the business into the country's best known and most trusted research company. He became a Christian 3 years later.

In 2014, he retired as Chief Executive and devoted himself to the healing and deliverance ministries through Charisma Christian Ministries.

In 2015, God gave him a revelation about the power of blessing, and especially the power of a father's blessing. This led to him writing a short, practical booklet called the Awesome Power of Blessing, published in 2016, with subsequent editions in 2017 and 2019. The book became a best seller in NZ with over 100,000 copies sold. Over this period, he wrote another book called Anointed for Work.

He has spoken 3 times at Promise Keepers NZ, to churches and ministries throughout NZ, and also in Kenya, Uganda, Tanzania, Pakistan and Brazil.

Many testimonies have come in and led to the publishing of The Blessing Effect in 2020; testimonies around marriages being restored or enhanced, parent-child relationships restored, emotional and physical healings, deliverances, curses broken, situations turned around, and many, many salvations.

The results are astounding. Today there are over 13 million of his books in print, growing at over 150,000 per week. 47 countries, over 40 languages.

Millions of people have discovered their authority in Christ Jesus, and the power of their words, to speak and release blessing over themselves and others.

Richard attends FaithPointe church in Auckland. He has been married to Nicole for 15 years, has learnt to speak French, and spends time between New Zealand and New Caledonia. He is a keen boatie and fisherman and owns an amphibious Sealegs boat.
