Therefore, since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. 15 For we do not have a high priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but One who has been tempted in all things as we are, yet without sin. 16 Therefore let us draw near with confidence to the throne of grace, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

Hebrews 4;14-16

Our perfect high priest is in Heaven, sympathizing with our weakness, and wants to help us in our need. Jesus is not glaring upon us – Jesus is rooting for us to succeed and wants to help if we call on Him. In Christ, we have everything we need to be faithful and obedient to God. And then we are encouraged to approach God’s throne of grace confidently.

Since Jesus is interceding for us, we ought to be confident to approach God, who can help us to receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need. We are often tempted to disobey God and go our own way and Jesus fully understands our weakness. We can expect to find mercy and grace when we approach God asking for help, because of the high priesthood of Jesus. Halleluia!
