Revelation 1:11 reads about a Greek Island called Patmos. Here our Lord and Saviour instructs John the Apostle to "write on a scroll what you see and send it to the seven churches," which are mentioned in Revelation 2:1 - 3:22. The churches in this context refer to the community or local congregations of Christians living in each city. Revelation 3:1-6 outlines one of those seven churches called Sardis. The latter part of 3:1 portrays Sardis as looking alive but spiritually dead. The appearance looks good on the outside but dead on the inside. A rather startling and somber image of the church. Verses 5 and 6 conclude with that enduring redemption and grace, where IN CHRIST there is always HOPE.
