40 DAYS OF PRAYER:

Today we start our 40 days of prayer journey. Why forty days? Forty is God's number for life change. For reasons unknown to us, the length of 40 – whether 40 days or 40 years – has been significant throughout biblical history. 40 days normally meant change. In other words, God led people into various seasons of “40” – usually days, but sometimes years – for the purpose of bringing in a new era or a new season in their lives. Forty days to turn things around. Forty days to change. Forty days to have one chapter of life end and another begin. Maybe this will be true for your life.

FATHER'S DAY:

On Mother's Day, we focused on Hannah's problems, her prayers, and her promise to dedicate her child to the Lord and raise him in God's house. Today, I want to focus on her husband Elkanah. I am conscious that Father's Day may bring mixed emotions for many. We have access to God the Father. We have access to his fatherly love. And we have access to experience the calm and strength in one's life that results from knowing we are loved and
