¹⁶ For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

Alan Telford

Are you lacking endurance? Do you feel like giving up? Are you tired from your struggle against sin? Do you just want to hide in a corner and wait for Jesus to return?

Hope is the spiritual force that provides endurance in your life, that ability to keep going and going and going like the Energizer bunny. Imagine that your life is a race, and not just any race, but an Ironman. Swim 3.8 km, cycle 180 km, run 42.2 km, and brag for the rest of your life, as the Ironman slogan goes. Crossing the finish line is going to demand endurance, a whole lot of endurance.

Your Christian life is also an endurance race with the finish line being the Second Coming or your physical death –whichever comes first.

"But Christ as a Son over His own house, whose house we are if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm to the end." Hebrews 3:6 (NKJV)

"And you will be hated by all for My name's sake. But he who endures to the end shall be saved." Mark 13:13 (NKJV)

Today we look at how to build hope in your life.
