Chris Ayers

Originally a schoolteacher from Queensland, Chris felt called to pursue full-time ministry 24 years ago. In 2005, he and his wife Judy moved their young family to Melbourne for theological training. It was during this time, that they felt called to serve cross-culturally in mission and in mid-2008 they departed Australia to help with church planting in Eastern Europe. For the next 8 years, their ministry focused primarily on bible teaching, discipling, counselling and community outreach. In this time, it was a joy for them to see a new Baptist church established in the city of Opole, Poland.

In early 2016, Chris and Judy felt God calling them out of that work. They returned to Australia in December of that year, praying through their next steps in ministry. In 2017, Chris accepted the role of Director for Pioneers New Zealand, and the family relocated to Auckland.

For the past 6 years, Chris has coordinated a team which cares for current cross-cultural workers from NZ, oversees the process of mobilising new workers from NZ, and supports NZ churches in strengthening their global mission focus. Chris also collaborates with colleagues from around the world in the development of global mission strategy.
