This Week's Sermon: Missions Month

Voice of the Martyrs - Serving the persecuted church Worldwide

All around the world, millions of Christians face persecution simply for following Jesus. In places like the Middle East, Africa, China, and Central Asia, believers are arrested, attacked, imprisoned, or forced into hiding because of their faith.

Voice of the Martyrs is a global ministry committed to standing with these brothers and sisters in Christ. Our mission is to serve the persecuted Church by providing practical help, spiritual encouragement, and the hope of the Gospel in the midst of suffering.

We show God's compassion by delivering aid to families of imprisoned believers, supporting widows, and helping those displaced by violence. We serve God's Church by equipping pastors and congregations to remain strong under pressure. We speak as advocates, raising awareness and mobilizing prayer and action across the global Body of Christ. We share God's love by helping persecuted believers reach their enemies with grace. And we spread God's Word by delivering Bibles and Christian materials into some of the world's most restricted areas.

The national directors, have faithfully led this mission for over 20 years. They've travelled around the world to meet with persecuted Christians face-to-face, hear their stories, and carry back their testimonies to inspire and challenge the Church here in New Zealand.
