This Week: Grahame - The Wise Men

The wise men followed a cosmic event, a star as they sought to find the King of the Jews. King Herod sought to kill him. The cosmic signs heralding this birth should not be surprising, given that the love born in this humble place is the love that moves the sun and stars. When we sing “Immanuel” we are proclaiming that God is with us. The Christmas story brings both a comfort and a challenge. The comfort is, if you repent and come to God through Jesus, not only will God accept you and work in your life, but he delights to work through people like you. He’s been doing it all through history.

The challenge is to turn towards Jesus and accept him as Lord and Saviour. If you want to believe in Jesus. Lay it on the line. Take that first step and accept God into your life. Regardless of how or why you came today, God bought you here to say I have a gift for you at Christmas, because you matter to me. Will you receive God’s free Christmas gift of Jesus Christ?

You can collect a copy of the sermon notes from the foyer on Sunday mornings, or download them from our website www.ranuibaptist.org.nz
