This Week: Tai - The Eyes of the Lord

Upon reflection on what God does with His divine eyes, 3 appropriate human responses come to mind. We are to seek the Lord consistently, confess our sins, and minister to those who are truly suffering.

Knowing that God can see through our appearance to read our fleshly thoughts, words and desires should cause us to respond in confession of our sins, and many of those things that God sees in us that just don't belong there.

Knowing also that God sees the suffering of people He loves should cause us to pray for them and look for opportunities to minister to those that usually make us uncomfortable; the lost, the last, and the least of these. Amen!

Christmas Hamper Update:

A big thank you to our incredibly generous Church!

We have now raised $9815 towards our Christmas Hampers!! This will enable us to bless even more members of the community than we initially planned.

Barb & the team will be making & delivering the hampers from Monday & we will be creating an incredible 70 Hampers this year!

Pastor Grahame Next Week:

Pastor Grahame will be off site next Wednesday & Thursday. If you need to see him in the office next week he will be here on Tuesday & Friday.

We Worship a God Who Heals

Over the last month God has moved in his healing power. Many have come forward for prayer. It's important that we gather the stories and testimonies of those who have been healed. If you experienced God's healing power, could you please make contact with one of the pastors. It's so encouraging for the church to hear these stories.
