This Week: Sermon on the Mount #12)

This morning we will be looking at one of the most beloved texts in the Sermon on the Mount, Matthew 7: 7-11. Otherwise known as the ask, seek and knock encouragement from Jesus to pray. To ask naturally indicates prayer but seek and knock are also metaphors for prayer. Ask means we are to come to God with humility and conscious of need as a child comes to their father.

Seek links our prayers with pursuing God's will for our life. Such as when a person prays for a job but also checks out leads. Knock includes perseverance in ones asking and seeking as when we preserve in praying for an unbeliever to come to Christ. We as disciples of Jesus are to ask the father continually in our prayer life. Also, we are to seek God's will for our lives and to maintain a determination in expecting the father to answer.

Pastor Grahame
